

CA FAQS Plus includes the following interfaces, options and capabilities in the base product license.

Production Control System	An event-driven scheduling system that provides comprehensive workload automation to meet the needs of modern data centers running the IBM® z/VSE® mainframe operating system. It can trigger events that have simple or complex dependencies.
Automated Systems Operation	A systems operations solution that automates the process of responding to console messages and provides an online platform for operators and systems programmers to gain easy access to a variety of system information and debugging aids in the z/VSE mainframe operating system environment.