Knowing your Mainframe Story

An opportunity to shape our products and solutions.

As a research partner to our ongoing crucial projects, we bank on your expertise to shape our Mainframe products and improve the overall product experience to better meet your needs. So that we align our products and efforts to what you do, the Mainframe UX Team always strives to know you more, listen to your mainframe story, understand and address the challenges that you face in different roles you play as users of our products.

As a first step, we request you to fill out this form to lend your experience to any of our important projects. A member of our team will reach out to you to take you through the list of open projects to collaborate.

Your participation will help us ensure that your preferences and needs are well represented in our solutions and that our products and services meet the needs of customers like you.
Your expert opinion is greatly appreciated!

We look forward to a great relationship.

Thank you,
Mainframe Team,
Broadcom.
